High School Plans for Commencement

Slaughter Chosen Orator by Seniors

With commencement but a week away, final preparations for the event were made this week by the Senior Class of the Lower Merion High School. A class orator and the most worthy boy were selected.

Though invitations for the final exercises were given to the seniors this week for distribution among their friends no announcement has been made yet by school authorities as to whom will graduate. Though it is pretty well known among the seniors who will and who will not graduate, official announcement is being held up until the Board of Education meets next Wednesday to officially approve of the list of graduates.

The commencement will take place Friday.

Herbert Slaughter, probably one of the best school-boy orators ever turned out of Lower Merion, was presented on last Thursday morning during assembly exercises in the Senior High School with a diploma from the State Commission of the National Oratorical Contest, as having delivered the most thoughtful and interesting speech on the Constitution of the United States. In addition to this Herbert, on Tuesday morning, June 2, was chosen the seniors graduating class orator from a group consisting of Edward Lockwood, John Blackburn, Charles Hamilton and Andrew Mawhinney.

The Harvard Club of Philadelphia on Thursday morning presented S. Eugene Kuen, president of the Junior Class, with a book, as the boy most worthy of recognition at the Lower Merion High School. Gene is captain of the 1925 football team, a high point scorer in track and president of the Lower Merion chapter of the Hi-Y Club.

Invitations were given to the Senior Class for their distribution for the commencement exercises to be held on Friday evening, the twelfth of June, at 8.15 o'clock at the Junior High School auditorium.

Friday evening, June 5, the annual High School musicale is to be held at the Junior High School auditorium at 8.15 o'clock sharp.

The combined chorus of the Senior and Junior High Schools will render choice vocal selections, while the High School orchestra will play. The musicale work of the high schools, which has been under the supervision of Mr. Judson Eldridge, has shown great progress and much may be credited to this teacher's efforts. Everyone is invited to be present.

On Sunday evening, June 7, at 8.15 o'clock sharp at the Senior High School auditorium, the baccalaureate service will be held for the Class of 1925. Rev. S. R. Douthett will present a short service. Special music will follow.

SEE HUGE DAMAGES FOR PIKE WIDENING

Widening of the Lincoln Highway by the State from Rosemont to the city line will cost Montgomery county a fortune in damages. First-hand information of the enormous cost of this highway improvement was obtained by County Commissioners Stout, Crawford and Keeler on an inspection tour last week.

The county officials ascertained that the widening of the highway will result in the destruction of beautiful shade trees and handsome sidewalks and greatly change the appearance of the fronts of many properties on this State road.

It is believed the residents of Lower Merion will register a strong protest against this proposed improvement, deeming it will do irreparable damage to a large section of the township.

Westminster Circle.

The June meeting of the Westminster Circle will be held at the home of Mrs. R. S. Dunne, No. 318 Grayling avenue, on Thursday evening, June 11. Mrs. Kennedy and Mrs. Reeves will assist.

In California.

Mrs. A. H. Wilson is enjoying an extended trip to Los Angeles, San Francisco and Portland, Oregon.

Narberth Cleans Up Cynwyd in Memorial Day Game

Fred Walzer's Cohorts Swamped by Seventh Inning Roman Holiday

Bill Crowell beat Fred Walzer and Narberth licked Bala-Cynwyd in the first meeting of these Main Line League baseball rivals at the Cynwyd school field on Memorial day. The final score was 11-5.

Fred and his cohorts put up a stiff battle for eight innings. During those eight stanzas they outplayed and outthrew Narberth, but they had one fatal lapse and that was during the seventh.

In that frame George Babb, Cynwyd's star hurler, and the entire Cynwyd team blew up. Bill Crowell's "champeens" stepped up and pounded the ball all over the lot, and before the inning was over had rapped out a scoring record that should stand for the Main Line League and a half a dozen other leagues. After two men had been retired, they scored 10 runs.

The debacle started when Burns, Narberth's snappy little catcher, the first man to face Babbie in the fatal seventh, hit a Texas Leaguer just out of reach of Shortstop Winters. The throw to first was wide and Burns was called safe.

Townsend drew a walk and Dickie, the head of the Narberth batting order fled out to Harold Thomas in short right. The fly was so close that both Burns and Townsend were unable to advance on base.

Fleck, next up, grounded to short and Burns was forced out at third. With two men down, Cynwyd rooters drew a sigh of relief. Babbie looked as if he was going to get out of a bad hole.

Humphries, Narberth's third baseman, next up, stood around and watched a half dozen of Babb's shoots sail by. When four of them were called wide he ambled down to first and the bases were loaded.

This brought Jack Jefferies, former Princeton star, who was batting as clean-up man, into the limelight—and Jeff cleaned up. After fouling a high one to short left, he singled and Princetonian Townsend came in with Narberth's second run.

Quincy Lee Yowell, otherwise known as Eppa, Narberth's young Woolworth tower, straddled the home plate and casting his eyes around the bases found the sacks still loaded. The situation must have irked him for he patted a single to short centre and cleared the bags of two of their campers. Fleck and Humphries cantered in with the tying runs.

Gene Davis, who had failed to do anything spectacular with the stick in previous visits to the plate, decided it was about time to fatten his batting average and hit to short left. This brought Jefferies in and put Narberth one run to the good.

Keyes grounded to second and on his hit Narberth's rally should have ended. Borne's throw to first, however, was wide; Chalfont was slow in getting back to the bag and Keyes was called safe. In the meantime two more Narberth runs trickled across the plate.

Burns hit a long fly to right. Turner muffed it and Keyes scored on the error. Pitcher Townsend, up for the second time during the inning, celebrated his return with a double to left field.

That hit ended Babb's pitching career for the day. He was yanked and Socks Flynn, third baseman, traded places with him.

Flynn, as a pitcher, proved that he was a pretty fair third baseman. He walked Dickie and Fleck in succession and let Townsend in with another run on a wild pitch. Humphries grounded to Winters at short who contributed

IN PARADE

Boy Scouts Participate on Memorial Day.

Considering the excessive heat and the many other diversions it was a good-sized contingent of the Boy Scouts which paraded Narberth's streets on Memorial Day. Their snappy appearance brought out much applause from the townspeople all along the line of march.

After the ceremonies at the Recreation Field twelve scouts, headed by Assistant Scoutmasters I. N. Wilson and Theo. Atkins, journeyed to Laurel Hill Cemetery, where they placed a flag on the grave of Ernest Cox. This visit was concluded with a silent prayer at the grave. Mr. Harvey Cook furnished a truck for the transportation of the boys.

Next Saturday, June 6, the troop will go to Camp Claghorn. All of the boys are to report at the Scout House in uniform at 7 o'clock. They have been instructed to carry their own rations, cooking kits, knives, forks and spoons; and they will prepare their own meals in regular scout style.

Public-spirited citizens have agreed to provide the necessary automobiles, and many a proud father is going to get just as much fun out of the experience as the boys.

TERMS EXPIRE

Two Main Line Magistrates Among Whose Terms End This Year.

Two of the 37 Montgomery county justices of the peace whose terms expire this year are from the eastern part of the county. They are Hervey C. Irwin, of Cynwyd, and Howard C. Fritsch, of Narberth.

No announcements have yet been made by local Republican leaders of plans to fill these vacancies, but it is believed that both Messrs. Irwin and Fritsch will stand for reelection. The term of a magistrate or justice of the peace is for six years.

FLOWER SHOW WINNERS

Prizes in Narberth Exhibit Are Announced.

Despite a heavy rain storm on the eve of the show, despite a decided show of disinterest by most of the people of Narberth, despite the fact that a great many people had flowers and promised to bring them and did not, and despite the fact that the receipts from admissions were far below the small cost of putting on the show there was a real flower show in Narberth last Saturday afternoon and evening.

Those who did bring their flowers and those who did the work of arranging the show are to be highly commended. The quantity of blooms was sufficient to fill all the classes that were in season and the quality of the flowers did credit to the gardeners of any community.

Only the delphiniums, foxgloves and Canterbury bells were missing but the rather freakish spring season made it difficult to fix a date to suit everything.

Among the winners in the peony classes were Mrs. Stites, Helen Shand, Mrs. W. R. Parker, Mrs. W. G. Crowell, Albert Golze, R. J. Edgar, Mrs. Howard Kairer, and Mrs. William C. Claghorn.

In the children's classes Helen Gilroy won the $3 prize, Jane Nash the $2 prize, and Donald Monroe, the ribbon.

The prizes in the classes for younger children went to Juliet Shaw, first prize, $3, and Margaret Shaw, second prize, $2.

The roses were unusually good for an early show and among the ribbon winners were: Mrs. Hugh Brown, Mrs. Stites, Mrs. George Gill, Jane Town, Mrs. W. J. Bailey, Ernest Boulay and Donald Monroe.

Miss Katherine Andrews was awarded the prize for an artistic arrangement.

It was a real good flower show. The judges said so, the exhibitors said so and the visitors said so.

Narberth members of the Pennsylvania Horticultural Society were able to secure the services of Mr. John Williams, of Haverford; Mr. William C. Breck, of Rosemont, and Miss Mary Evans, of Villanova, to serve as judges.

Ardmore Bank will Open New Home

Enlarged Structure Ready for Business

The Ardmore National Bank will formally open its new home at No. 6 West Lancaster avenue, Ardmore, on Saturday afternoon, June 6, with a reception to its customers and to the general public of the several Main Line communities it serves.

Final touches are now being given to the interior of the handsome new building and early next week the installation of the fixtures and other accessories will be virtually completed. The reception, which will last from 2 until 6 P. M. and from 7 to 9 P. M., will afford an opportunity for the complete inspection of the banking quarters, including the massive vault in the centre of the building.

John S. Wilson, president of the bank, and other officers and directors of the institution will constitute the committee in charge of the opening.

Constructed in a style made notable by the Italian Renaissance, the bank's new home will combine distinction and beauty with extreme utility. The convenience of its interior arrangement, the lighting and other features promise to give a new conception of real service to its customers.

The improved facilities of the new quarters will place many conveniences at the disposal of the bank's customers, and will enable the bank organization to give added personal service to its many clients. The removal from the tem-

IN PAINFUL ACCIDENT

Dr. S. Z. Shope Near Death When Car Overturns.

Dr. Samuel Z. Shope, of 108 Iowa avenue, was painfully injured last Saturday, when a car in which he was riding was overturned near New Brunswick, N. J.

Dr. Shope was riding in a sedan with the family of Mr. Charles J. Grant, who was driving. Shortly after leaving Princeton, the car turned to the side of the road to let a car full of apparently drunken negroes pass. Due to recent rain, the machine skidded, and to avoid a collision which would have involved several cars in the heavy traffic, Mr. Grant swerved into an embankment.

The car turned over, and struck a telephone pole with such force as to completely wreck the machine. Dr. Shope was thrown violently to the ground, knocked unconscious, bleeding profusely from a wound in the head. A large crowd immediately collected and stood about, believing him dead.

On regaining consciousness Dr. Shope heard the young daughter of his host bemoaning his death. Both eyes were closed by the flow of blood, so he first experimented to see if his vision was unimpaired and then staggered to his feet. His first thought was of the safety of the rest of the party, so, holding his finger tight against the severed supra-orbital artery to check the spurting blood he examined the four others, none of whom was badly hurt.

Finally according to the urgings of those standing near, he was taken to the Princeton Hospital, where it was found he had numerous severe lacerations and bruises, a badly scraped leg and was suffering from shock. Later his son, Dr. S. Pierce Shope, of Camden, was called, and after the injuries had been dressed the injured man was brought to his home in Narberth.

He has recovered sufficiently to leave home, and is giving partial attention to his practice. Dr. Shope is a prominent eye, throat and ear specialist of Philadelphia and is leader of the Community Bible class of the Presbyterian Church.

Engagement Announced.

Mr. and Mrs. Abram Bunn Ross announce the engagement of their daughter, Gertrude Darlington, to Mr. Edward S. Burrell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Horace H. Burrell, of Mt. Airy, Philadelphia.

Anna Roselle

MUSIC FESTIVAL TO AID BRYN MAWR HOSPITAL

Concert Saturday Night on Polo Field Will Benefit Children's House.

The fourth annual Main Line music festival will be held on the Bryn Mawr Polo Field, Saturday night. The proceeds of the concert will be used to aid the Children's House of the Bryn Mawr Hospital.

Some of the best artists in the country have been engaged for the festival and hundreds of tickets have been sold by members of the ticket committee. Anne Roselle, prima donna, of the San Carlo Opera Company; Ruth St. Denis and Ted Shawn, well-known dancers; 50 members of the Philadelphia Orchestra, a large male chorus and Ciro De Ritis, baritone of the Chicago Civic Opera Company, have been engaged. Clarence C. Nice, a conductor of the San Carlo Opera Company, will be the musical director in charge of the programme.

Mrs. Charles Sinnickson and Mrs. James D. Winsor will head the women's committee. Samuel M. Vaulcan, president of the hospital, and Robert E. Strawbridge, Charlton Yarnall and Elliott Curtiss also will head committees.

COUNTY TAXES

Must Be Paid to Borough and Township Collectors.

In the future all county taxes must be paid to the borough and township collectors.

County Treasurer Frank Shallop, of Collegeville, announced that under the new law no county taxes can be paid direct to his office at the Courthouse in the future.

This new law affects Narberth residents and all citizens of the county. It has been possible for the taxpayers to pay taxes at the office of the county treasurer heretofore. Now the law requires the borough and township collectors to collect the county and State levies, together with the school, road and borough taxes.

All letters containing checks for county taxes will have to be sent back to the taxpayers if they are mailed to the Courthouse. Taxpayers who use the mails to pay their taxes must send them all direct to their local tax collector.

Junior Community Club Notes.

The Junior Community Club elected their new officers at the last club meeting, and the new officers are as follows: President, Margaret Eyre; first vice president, Marion Trotter; second vice president, Helen Caldwell; recording secretary, Dorothy Wilson; corresponding secretary, Madeline McCoy Riddle; treasurer, Lillian Compton.

The juniors held a card party recently on Fittipaldi's lawn, Merion avenue. There were about 10 tables of bridge and five hundred. This was the last of the club activities for the season.

Tuesday night was the last meeting of the season. The program committee prepared a very interesting entertainment in the form of a vaudeville act.

At the Shore.

J. Baird Caldwell and Earl Thompson were Atlantic City visitors last Sunday.

Miss Anna Foley, of Narberth, has moved to the Ryandhurst Apartments, Atlantic City.

Fete Champetre At St. Margaret's

Four-Day Affair Coming Next Week

To overcome the objections of many folks that the great fete champetre conducted annually by St. Margaret's Church has occurred too late in the year to allow participation of those who journey vacation-ward early in the month, this year's affair will start next Wednesday evening, the 10th, and will continue on each succeeding evening until and including Saturday, the 13th, when it will conclude in a gorgeous and gala glare of glory.

It is therefore expected that this season's attendance will be more numerous than ever, particularly as it is announced that it is planned to have band concerts on each evening, a corps of 50 players, and in addition the novelty market has been scoured to bring to town the latest American and European creations in the way of carnivals of the highest order. Among other features, the program is said to include the first showing in these parts of Bingo Bongo, the irresistible insinuator, and those who have traveled at all must know what is involved by just that one fact. The old favorites which have earned the right to survive will be on deck once again, but others have given away to the new things which crowd for attention, including "Beano," from the Land of Lima, and if you would consult Mr. Smedley you will learn that he has been engaged long and late in providing the arena necessary to accommodate this prodigious production.

Admission is free and whether much or little is spent, the assurance is that all will go home well rewarded for their evening's visit.

And it is hoped that those who have a particular interest in the big show will see to it that they reserve at least two of the four evenings to attend, their attendance that they have a cordial regard for the earnest effort which has been made to provide for their pleasure and entertainment.

MRS. ANNA DABBS OLDFIELD

Mrs. Anna Dabbs Oldfield, for many years a resident of Narberth, died last Friday, May 29, in her 79th year. She was the daughter of the late Henry L. Fisher, a prominent attorney of York, Pa., and at one time nestor of the York bar.

The funeral was held Monday at the parlors of Charles M. Stuard, Ardmore. Rev. John Van Ness, pastor of the Narberth Presbyterian Church, of which the deceased was a member, conducted the services. The pallbearers were Messrs. William J. Markle, Robert M. Caldwell, Melvin W. Fisher and Luther S. Fisher.

Mrs. Oldfield is survived by three sisters: Mrs. Laura Gosweiler, of Chicago; Mrs. Henry Nes and Miss Emma L. Fisher, of York, and Mr. Melvin W. Fisher, also of York.

Interment was made in Mount Vernon Cemetery, Philadelphia.

MRS. WALTER J. ODIORNE

Mrs. Marion Town Odiorne, wife of Mr. Walter J. Odiorne, of 321 Merion avenue, died suddenly at her home on Tuesday.

Beside her husband she is survived by six children, Douglas, Richard, Alfred, Robert, Margaret and Marion. She is also survived by two brothers, Dr. Edwin Cunningham Town and Mr. Robert Morris Town, both residents of Narberth. She was the daughter of the late Dr. Edwin C. and Florence Cunningham Town.

Funeral services were held from her late residence on Thursday afternoon. Dr. Robert Norwood, rector of St. Bartholomew's Episcopal Church, New York City, former rector of St. Paul's, Overbrook, officiated.

Interment was made in the Lutheran Cemetery, Ardmore.

Bridge.

Mrs. J. H. O'Rourke, of Woodbine avenue, entertained at a bridge tea last Saturday afternoon in honor of her sister, Miss Helen Peterson, whose marriage to Mr. Robert Farwell, of Germantown, will take place in the fall.

POSTOFFICE MOVES AGAIN

New Quarters in Floyd Building Its Sixth Home.

The removal of the Bryn Mawr postoffice today from its present quarters in the Philip Harrison Building, on the corner of Lancaster and Central avenues to the new building erected by Frank Floyd at the corner of Lancaster and Merion avenues, will mark the sixth change in location since the Post office was established in 1871.

Prior to 1871 the residents of what is now known as Bryn Mawr received their mail from the West Haverford Postoffice, located in the present quarters of "Ye Old Store," Junction of Railroad avenue and County Line road. William Horn Ramsey was the first postmaster of the original Bryn Mawr Postoffice which was established in 1871 in the Ramsey Store, where it remained until 1885, when the late Hugh W. Barrett, appointed postmaster by President Cleveland, removed it to a portion of a building on Lancaster avenue, owned by Dr. Goentner, on the site now occupied by the American Stores.

It remained here until Postmaster Barrett secured quarters on the first floor of the present Bryn Mawr Trust Company Building.

J. Newton Marshall in 1889 succeeded Mr. Barrett at Bryn Mawr for the Pennsylvania Railroad. He removed the office to the eastern end of the present Bryn Mawr passenger station. In 1896 John J. Connelly, who was appointed by President Cleveland to succeed Mr. Marshall, continued to keep the office in the station. On June 1, 1897, I. Warner Arthur, the present Justice of the Peace, was appointed by President McKinley to succeed Mr. Connelly. He retained the office in the station until the present Garrigues Building was erected on west side of North Bryn Mawr avenue, where the Postoffice was relocated.

Mr. Arthur was postmaster for 17 years, receiving four commissions from three presidents, McKinley, Roosevelt and Taft. On June 1, 1914, John J. McAllister was made postmaster by President Wilson. Mr. McAllister maintained the office in the Garrigues Building until November, 1914, when he moved it to the Philip Harrison Building, where it remained during Mr. McAllister's term and under his successor, the present Postmaster, J. Clayton Whitby, a native of the same town, Marion, Ohio, as the late President Harding, from whom he received his commission.

BOROUGH OF NARBERTH

Sealed bids, addressed to the undersigned will be received until 7.30 P. M., Eastern Standard Time, Monday, June 29, 1925, for the purchase of 4 per cent. Road Improvement Bonds of the Borough of Narberth to the amount of Seventy-five Thousand Dollars ($75,000.00) dated August 1, 1925, and maturing Fifteen Thousand Dollars ($15,000.00) on August 1, 1935, and Fifteen Thousand Dollars ($15,000.00) each five years thereafter until August 1, 1955.

(6-27)
CHAS. V. NOEL,
Borough Secretary.

June is such a month of joy,
The flowers, and birds and trees all show it;
And aren't you glad that you and I,
With all these other glad things, know it.

DELPHINIUMS

The finest perennial which has been called. But that is hardly praise enough for a flowering plant that does all that a delphinium does for the gardener.

First it is strictly hardy; it will not, however, stand abuse and insists on a really well-drained soil, a deep hole with drainage material in the bottom filled with clean soil—no manure—and the delphinium will throw up a six-foot stalk with about two feet of bloom.

Like any other herbaceous plant it cannot survive water standing around it on the surface. The surface drainage must be good.

Give them sub-soil drainage, surface drainage and good soil free of manure and you can have bloom in early June and again in September, for the delphinium is an ever-blooming perennial; it will keep on blooming until cut down by frost.

They can be raised from seed and will give as good plants as their parents were. Be sure your seeds are from a pure bred strain as the color and form will vary under most conditions but the parentage will tell, and the parent's company will show as the flowers are pollinated by bees, and if there are only good plants in the neighborhood then only good plants will be found among the offspring.

Seed is best sown in late summer and should be fresh picked. Stale seeds will give a much smaller percentage of germination.

Two-year old plants can be divided into many divisions and each will be exactly like the old plant when it becomes established in its second year.

The plants can remain in the same location for four or five years but take up quite a bit of space. Dividing every two or three years is preferred.

Light blue, dark blue, all blues, purples, pink and blue, all combinations of blue, purple, lavender and pink are found in the tall hybrids but the solid blues seem the most desirable on account of the possibilities of arranging them with either white or clear yellow flowers that bloom at the same time.

Have you ever seen delphiniums with yellow Iceland poppies in front of them?

Or a Laburnum tree with delphiniums in front of it?

Or a good planting of hybrid delphiniums with Madonna Lillies?

Or Lillium Testaceum with delphiniums?

There are many feasts of beauty in store for the gardener who has earned the name by cultivating that wonderful quality, taught by Nature—patience.

BOROUGH BASEBALL

Our Sports Writer Discusses Various Matters.

Mr. Grover's well-disposed suggestions in last week's "Our Town" have served to stimulate the immediate attention of the astute grounds manager, William Newborg, Esq., and forthwith the fans may expect a more effective kind of safeguards than that which now exists. It is understood, of course, that the present makeshift nature of the stands were made necessary on account of the fact that the final location of the ball field was not indicated until very recently, and when the leveling is completed it is hoped that a modern pavilion will be quickly erected at the Wynnewood avenue end, either as the result of an official appropriation or by contributions from the original members of the Narberth Playground Association, who are primarily accountable for the existence of our great outdoor centre. Meanwhile, everybody should know that their financial support of the ball team, by generous donations at the games, or, even more important, by purchase of the $5 season tickets, will be of decided service in providing the community with everything it ought to have for a first-class presentation of the national pastime.

Charlie Townsend has been doing yeoman work on the slab for Narberth this season, and the borough should congratulate itself that it can depend on such a splendid young gentleman to espouse its cause in wholesome athletics. As he has played three years on the Princeton varsity team, Charlie's days are over as regards college baseball, but he maintains a strictly amateur basis nevertheless, and great appreciation is in order for the time and skill he spends so freely with us, disregarding the many other opportunities which are constantly available to him. The boys coming up should take a leaf out of his book if they want to play the game in a clean-cut, four-square manner, free from petty practices and contentious capers.

They may go, but they come back, and that is good for them and good for us. After a short sojourn on the Eastern Shore, Epper Yowell and Johnny Dickie decided they just had about enough of that Crisfield, Md., stuff, and they hurried once again to our midst before somebody else took their place at the table. Of course, they know that whoever did try to take their chair would have to get up as soon as they came in, but we do hope they won't do any more of this rambling business. It is well known that both players are very superstitious individuals, and they simply couldn't stand it when they were called upon to sleep 13 in a bed. Johnny also did mention something about 28 men taking a bath in the same tub, and, being a newcomer, his turn didn't come until No. 27.

And then to add lustre to the Old Home Week, Mickey Burns shows up in his erstwhile position behind the bat and is on record as stating that never again will he wander from the old fireside. It was Pleasantville which lured our previous prize package away from us, and whilst Charles (isn't it about time he got his baptismal name?) performed exceedingly well for the sand-snipers, as he does on all occasions, he no doubt missed the thrill which comes from playing for your own friends, and that's worth more to him than the world-wide reputation which outside catching would produce. Don't forget to give Sir Charles a hearty hand when he comes to bat at today's game.

If we have failed to say anything here about the necessity of purchasing the $5 season tickets, please do pardon the omission and buy just the same as if we had mentioned it.

ARDMORE NATIONAL BANK

& TRUST COMPANY

ARDMORE TO HAVE NEW TYPE OF "Y"

Building Will Be Open to Men and Women.

A new type of Y. M. C. A. organization, with a building which will serve as a united parish house for all the churches of the territory, open to men and women at the same time, will be established when an edifice to be known as the Main Line Y. M. C. A. will be erected at Ardmore within the next few months.

The building to be situated next to the P. R. R. station at Ardmore and bounded on two sides by Montgomery and Anderson avenues, will mark a new departure in Y. M. C. A. work in Philadelphia. For, in contrast to the various branches of the organization in this city, it will contain dormitories for women as well as men, its facilities will be open to both at all times, it will be operated on a partially self-supporting basis and will be used day and night as a center for the entire Main Line district.

As explained by W. M. Danner, Jr., Main Line executive of the Y. M. C. A., the project is to be in the nature of a model suburban organization. It will be a part of the general Philadelphia Y. M. C. A., but will serve as a sort of combined Y. M. C. A., and Y. W. C. A. The first units of the building, which will be begun within the next two months, will include a 75-foot swimming pool and a gymnasium which, when complete, will measure 76 by 110 feet. It will be the largest gymnasium contained in any Y. M. C. A. building here, and the most spacious to be found on the entire Main Line. One hundred and twenty rooms will be included in the dormitory sections, with the usual service features, and the larger halls and rooms will be rented for club and other organization functions as a means of revenue.

Another new feature of the project will be the organization of a council of 100 men and women, to be known as the Main Line Council of the Y. M. C. A., and to work in conjunction with the regular management.

porary quarters, on the north side of Lancaster avenue directly opposite the new building to the new bank, will mark another important step forward in a history already well supplied with proofs of exceptional progress. This progress is shown particularly in the record of deposits, which in 14 years or between 1911 and April 1, 1925, have climbed from $100,000 to $1,814,742, and in the total of resources, which in the same period have increased from $170,000 to $2,108,742.

Illustrating the care and forethought exercised in planning the building is the Cricket avenue entrance, which actually locates the facilities of the bank as conveniently for the business people and residents of that fast developing thoroughfare as for the merchants and others who use Lancaster avenue.

The new building is a two-story structure with an exceptionally large basement. It has a frontage of 40 feet on Lancaster avenue and the ceiling height of the main banking rooms is 30 feet. A wide corridor, which runs from the lobby straight through the main part of the building, extends directly to Cricket avenue.

Limestone has been used effectively in the construction of the exterior of the building, which is of reinforced concrete construction. The wall treatment of the main banking room has been developed into five arches on each side, a beautiful Caen stone being used for this purpose. All the banking fixtures are of Tavernealla Pink marble, while the woodwork is polished mahogany. The floor of the lobby and main corridor is of marble. In the working quarters of the bank, cork floors have been installed.

Through an arrangement of six diffusing sash in the ceiling of the main banking rooms, natural light is utilized throughout this part of the bank.

Directly to the right of the main entrance is the main office of the president of the bank, with the office of the cashier next to it. Both are separated from the lobby only by a low marble railing, so that both officers are readily accessible. In back of the main office of the president is a small private office. Across the lobby from these two office spaces are similar open offices for the new business department of the bank, and the assistant cashier.

Lining the lobby and corridor are the tellers' cages and offices arranged with a view to providing prompt and efficient service without sacrificing the friendly atmosphere which distinguished the bank in its old quarters. At the rear of the main banking room are the coupon booths for holders of safe deposit boxes, and also a fireproof record room for the bank's books and other records.

Of particular interest is the great vault which actually is a separate building constructed inside the main bank. The entrance to this fire and burglar proof structure is on a level with the main floor, and it is in one section of this vault that the safe deposit boxes for the use of customers are placed.

The vault is of reinforced concrete construction on its own foundation, and with a complete protection by an intricate electric burglar alarm system, the wires of which line all sides, ceiling and floor. A great rectangular manganese steel door, weighing several tons and equipped with the latest developments in locks, heat and concussion resisting metals and alarm systems, will seal this vault every night.

Just to the left of the main entrance is a handsomely appointed women's rest room, with many conveniences for the use of customers and friends. Antique furniture, including writing tables and telephone is a part of the equipment. On the second floor of the building overlooking the main banking is the directors' room. On the floor, too, are the employees' rooms and quarters for the keeping department and other space.

In the basement, readily reached by a stairway, which leads off from the corridor running through to the Cricket avenue entrance, are two large rooms occupying one-half of the entire basement. These have been installed for building and loan associations, fraternal and other organizations which need suitable quarters conveniently located with respect to the centre of Ardmore. There are also rooms in the basement for the convenience of customers who store silverware and other bulky articles in the safety vaults of the bank, and who may have occasion to examine the valuables in privacy.

In the plans for the building, which were drawn up by John T. Brugger, a Philadelphia architect, particular attention was paid to the ventilation and heating. The heating is by vapor system, produced through improved oil burning apparatus.

BIRTHS DOUBLE DEATHS

There were 1600 more births in Montgomery County the past year than deaths.

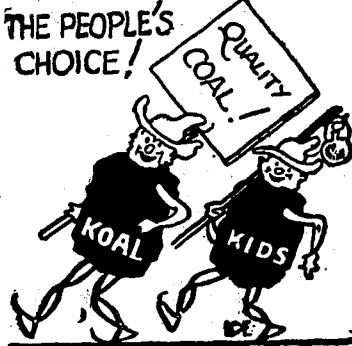

In Lower Merion Township the birth rate was double the death rate. In the Borough of Narberth the deaths exceeded the births by two.

According to figures given out in Norristown there were 620 births in Lower Merion to 336 deaths. The figures for Narberth are 26 deaths and 24 births.

Montgomery County was required to pay the State Department of Health $2205.25, representing the claims of the various registrars of Montgomery who made return of deaths and births to the State Department which the county must pay.

The county is divided into districts. The registrars receive a fee of 25 cents for each death or birth recorded. In the preceding year the amount paid in the county was $1982.50.

THE EQUIPMENT
BEHIND YOUR TELEPHONE

ON DECEMBER 31st, last, there were 899,949 telephones served by this company in Pennsylvania.

The cost of the telephone plant and equipment as shown on its books was $191,400,000.

$212 per telephone, on an average, divided as follows:

Land and buildings	$28.67	per telephone
Switchboard and other central office equipment	58.53	" "
Outside plant, poles, cables, wires, subscribers' equipment, etc.	121.03	" "
Supplies, furniture, repair shop equipment, motor vehicles, tools, etc.	3.77	" "

Total $212.00 per telephone

Ten years ago the average was but $129 per telephone. Such has been the effect of the rising cost of materials on the telephone plant during the period of its greatest growth, despite a thousand and one economies and improvements in engineering and construction.

But perhaps what is of most interest to the user of telephone service is the volume of equipment behind the telephone instrument itself.

Not merely a pair of wires and a few switches at the other end, but a great volume and complication of apparatus, much of it as delicately adjusted as a watch.

And a keen, twenty-four-hour-a-day organization of 22,000 skilled men and women.

another error and advanced Nar-berth's total in runs to 11. Jefferies then grounded to Johnny Winters and the massacre ended when Winters threw him out at first for the third and much-delayed final out.

Cynwyd tried valiantly to retrieve itself in the remaining two been hit freely in the earlier innings, but Townsend, who had stages of the game, tightened up and became as generous with his hits as a first-class miser. His team-mates who had played sloppy ball in the first few innings also reformed and gave him air-tight support.

Features of the game were the hitting of both pitchers, Babb and Townsend, and the work of Nar-berth's first baseman and catcher, Gene Davis and Burns, respectively.

The traditional rivalry was augmented by the fact that Cynwyd was managed by Fred Walzer, who piloted Narberth's Main Line champions last year. Fred was anxious to win that game from Bill Crowell, noted football official, who succeeded him as skipper of the Narbites this season.

Both Walzer and Babbie, who played with Narberth last year, were targets for the comments of Narberth fans.

ANOTHER DREAM REALIZED

Library Buys New International Encyclopaedia.

Some few weeks ago the Library bought the New International Encyclopaedia Supplement in two volumes covering the years 1915-1925, hoping at some future time to purchase the foundation set. At that time no one thought that the dream would so soon be realized, for the purchase price of such a set is about $168. Because of the appropriation of the School Board of Narberth, and because of a favorable offer from the publishing company to libraries, Dodd, Meade & Company, the Narberth Library Board of Trustees voted to purchase the set at once, and at once the 23 volumes came, at once they were called into use by the readers of the Library, and also at once they netted $1, for one reader on her enthusiasm at finding therein the answers to several questions which had been puzzling her for some time, immediately presented her $1 for a membership in the Library Association.

The Library Trustees at a recent meeting appointed Miss Anna MacKeag, as librarian to serve during June and July, in the absence of Mrs. Robert Wood, who has a two months' leave of absence. Miss MacKeag has been an active member in the Library from the early days of the work and by her enthusiasm and her training well qualified for the position. Miss MacKeag is president of the recently formed Library Association.

Following is a list of the new books purchased by the Library during May.

The Narberth Tennis Association can boast this year of one of the largest junior memberships in this district, with an enrollment of more than 40 juniors. All of the big tennis clubs are now paying a great deal of attention to the development of the younger players and it is a fine thing that Narberth should be one of the leaders in this movement. Narberth can soon boast of junior players of the calibre of Sandy Weiner or Don Strachan.

However, owing to the limited number of courts and increasing membership it has been found necessary to make a new ruling that bars junior and associate members from the use of the courts on Saturdays and Sundays.

The justice of this rule is apparent when it is considered that the amount of money paid in dues by these classes of membership is very small in proportion to that paid by the regular members who should therefore be entitled to the full use of the courts on the best days of the week.

Tennis Association After Members.

Sometime during the past week every member of the Narberth Tennis Association has received a supply of membership blanks and the slogan is "Get Your Man." If every member will bring in one additional member the club will soon have a waiting list and Bill Evans will learn how to smile again. This ought not to be hard to do, as there are many residents of Narberth and Merion who will be glad to join if they are asked. The new class of membership in effect this year for the first time makes it easy for every member to to his part. The fact that a man does not play tennis is no excuse for not joining, as this new membership class costs but $10 per year without initiation fee and carries all the privileges of the club except the use of the courts and the right to vote or hold office.

The Narberth Tennis Association is one of the best tennis clubs in this district and it undoubtedly has more to offer its members than many other clubs that have much higher dues. The courts have been declared to be the best clay courts in the East by no less an authority than Mr. Paul W. Gibbons, president of the Philadelphia and District Lawn Tennis Association. The club house is a roomy and comfortable place and each member has locker and shower privileges. The best feature of all, however, is the uncrowded condition of the courts. There is always room, even on holidays, for many more members to enjoy the courts. Remember the slogan and "Get Your Man."

As usual, dinner will be served in the club house on Saturday evening. Those who wish to make reservations should phone Mrs. Staples not later than 6 P. M., Friday. Phone Narberth 370-R.
